

Central Area - Spring Workshop 2017

Saturday March 18, 2017 - 9:30 am – 1:00 pm

May Memorial Library, 508 West Davis Street, Burlington, NC 27215

Hello Friends...

It is time to register for this FREE workshop, which will gather together Friends from neighboring libraries in the Central area counties. It is an opportunity for you to energize your membership, learn about bookstores, fundraising, and membership recruitment. You can share unique projects to support your library. You do NOT have to be a member of FONCPL to attend, but of course, you will have an opportunity to join.

You will discover what's happening in the state government that may impact your library. There will be representatives from the FONCPL Board and State Library of North Carolina. There will be time for idea sharing and a questions and answers session. Please share this workshop information with your Friends and anyone interested in supporting your library. Invite them to come with you to the workshop. You will receive a confirmation of your registration along with travel directions. During the break, you will have an opportunity to visit the Friends of Alamance County's Book Sale.

The meeting will be held at the May Memorial Library, 508 West Davis Street, Burlington, NC 27215. We will adjourn for lunch and hope everyone can join us at the Valerio's Italian Restaurant, 120 East Front Street just one block from the library. Lunch is on your own. Also this is an opportunity to continue to network and learn more from Friends groups. I look forward to meeting everyone. If you have any questions, comments, suggestions or concerns don't hesitate to contact me at 919.471.4566 or robincrawford1@hotmail.com.
